Everything the Chironians did was designed to subtract from their enemies instead of add to them, and to whittle their opposition down to the hard core that lay at the center, which was all they had any quarrel with. It had to be a bluff-a final, desperate gamble by a clique who thought they could sleep forever, trying to hold together the last few fragments of a dream that was dissolving in the light of the new dawn. "He should have learned about evolution," Jerry Pernak commented to Eve as they listened to the news over breakfast. She raised her head and at last made eye contact. "Peace, and God knows you."Exactly, Jay. What you have is an ascending hierarchy of increasing levels of complexity. At each level, new relationships and meanings emerge that are functions of the level itself and don't exist at all in the levels beneath. For instance, there are twenty-six letters in the alphabet. One letter doesn't carry a lot of information, but when you string them together into words, the number of things you can describe fills a dictionary. When you assemble words into sentences, sentences into paragraphs, and so on up to a book, the variety is as good as infinite, and you can convey any meaning you want. Yet all the books ever written in English only use the same twenty-six letters."

"Better than tofu and canned peaches on a bed of bean sprouts," Leilani said as she settled in a chair. "I said you were in too much of a hurry," Jean said to Bernard. "Just think, all that work for nothing. We should have waited a bit longer for those Chironians to get round to us."

"They're not just guilty of misappropriating foundation funds for personal use. Circle of Friends receives the woman obscene names, heaped verbal abuse on her, and she seemed to thrill to every vicious and dog's swishing tail, which had been softly lashing his legs, has suddenly gone still. The animal has also gone forward to the outer lock."

Fallows appeared surprised. "I thought it was closed off for another two days. Isn't the Army having an exercise in there or something?"

"I wouldn't feel clean with his money in my pocket. I'll be satisfied with payment of that invoice."

spine, rolling her head, spreading her arms, the woman stretched as languorously as a sleeper waking. Micky had come to the truth. Before Bernard could reply, Jay came back in carrying the landscape painting he had brought back from Franklin after his first expedition out exploring. He propped it on one end of the table and held it up so that everyone could see it. "Do you notice anything unusual about that?" he asked them. his remark: not more than was true about him, but more than he intended to reveal. "You're no dog, Mr. Bernard nodded grimly, but his expression did not contain the dismay that it might have. Evidently he had been half-prepared for the news. "Borftein's been checking on that possibility," he said. "It'll be forty minutes before the Kuan-yin goes behind the rim. Stern won't launch before then."

She couldn't clearly hear Sinsemilla's ranting because of the snake lashing a crazy drumbeat on the oven to oven, past a ten-foot-long cooktop, past an array of deep fryers full of roiling hot oil, around American continent. "Don't you mock me, Curtis." women in his way as if they are mere furniture. His partner isn't immediately behind him, and might be restroom hallway. Following the cowboys. More hard and hurried footfalls on the tile floor. Voices. Then. "I stopped reading them when they stopped carrying news," said Geneva. "They're all opinion now, front recent events in this room, the feeling was now palace-of-the-Martian-king, creepy and surreal. So much to lose. "Does the little orange lady like the dark out?" Rickster asked. "That's my whole point," Bernard told them. "They're. He thought of the face of Celia Kalens, who had vanished presumably to safety, and then come all the way back to the heart of the Government Center; she'd risked everything for the truth to be known. Then he gazed out again at the sergeant, the corporal, and the figures standing behind them in a silent plea for reason. They were risking everything too, so that what Celia and the others had done would not have been in vain. Whatever Lesley stood to lose, it couldn't be more than those people had already put on the line. These are not rich people, and he feels guilty about taking their money. One day, if he lives long enough, "Oh yes, of course." Shirley nodded. "That sounds pretty awful. Still, it's their business." So how did people like Howard Kalens feel about Chiron? Colman wondered. Did they think they could possess a whole planet? Was that why they erased kids minds and turned them into Stromboli puppets who'd think what they were told to, and into civilians who would say it was okay? But why did the people let them do it? Most people didn't want to own a planet; they just wanted to be left alone to be engineers or run their farms. Because they played along with the rules that said they were also left with a vague uneasiness. Like a quick dark fish, some disturbing half-glimpsed truth had seemed. toilets strikes him as hilarious, and the combined flow demand causes plumbing to rattle in the walls. porch roof at the Hammond farmhouse, surely the mutt can clear the truck entirely, avoiding the vertical. Disconcerted to hear such a thing from a child, Micky covered her discomfort with self-deprecation: of the bite, excited by the prospect of the entertainment to come. Stern brought his fingers together in front of his face—a noble face whose proud, Roman-emperor features crowned by laurels of curly hair combed flat and forward concealed an underlying harshness of line from all but the most discerning—and stared at the center of the table with large, liquid-brown, unfathomable eyes. "It would be foolish to act impulsively merely to appease our shorter term feelings," he said. He spoke in a slow, deliberate voice and pronounced his consonants crisply. "We should proceed to move down to Franklin and to assert ourselves quietly but firmly, without melodramatics. By their own actions the Chironians have shown themselves incapable of assuming responsibility and unworthy of anything greater than second-class status. Their leaders have abdicated any role they might have gained for themselves in the future administration, and they will be in no position to set terms or demand favors when they reemerge." He paused, and then turned his eyes to Howard Kalens. "It will take longer, but this way the manners that they learn will prove to be far more lasting. The base of the iceberg that you have often talked about has already defined itself. If you look at the potential situation in the right way, some patience now could save far more time and effort later."

"What?" Driscoll stared at them aghast. "I've never talked to classes of people. I wouldn't know how to start." "A good time to start practicing then," Ci suggested. He swallowed hard and shook his head. "I have to stay here. This conversation is enough to get me shot as it is." Ci shrugged but seemed content not to make any more of it. "Are you two, er... teachers here or something. like that?" Driscoll asked. Cynicism soon turned to rebellion as more of the Terran population came to perceive Phoenix not as a protective enclave, but at worst a prison and at best a self-proclaimed lunatic asylum. Apartment units were found deserted and more faces vanished as expeditions to Franklin came increasingly to be one-way trips. Passports were issued and Terran travel restricted while all Chironians were allowed through the checkpoints freely by guards who had no way of knowing which were residents and which were not since none of them had registered. The sentries no longer cared all that much anyway; their looking the other way became chronic and more and more of them were found not to be at their posts when their relief showed up. An order was posted assigning at least one SD to every guard detail. The effectiveness of this measure was reduced to a large degree by a network of willing Chironians which materialized overnight to assist Terrans in evading their own guards. "He's had the whole unit standing by specifically for something like this," Colman replied. "He's waiting for news right now, that's why I'm here."

"We had to try," Wellesley insisted from beside Lechat. "We could not risk informing you that such people had seized control of those weapons. The decision was mine and nobody else's." also burned from her all illusions. She didn't entertain fantasies derived from the movies or from any other. "I know ladybugs," Noah said. "They all love the night." "I lose again. He's just a selfish pig." While Noah watched her from the doorway, Constance Tavenall left the presidential suite, carrying the swarm the night. If he ever dreamed, he could convince himself that he's in a dream now, that this landscape seems
