Bernard turned to stare out of the window and think. A knot of figures, all clad in olive drab and standing not far from the main entrance in the parking area below, caught his eye and caused him to stiffen in surprise. They were wearing uniforms--U.S. Army uniforms. Some kind of delegation from the Mayflower II was visiting the place, he concluded. The thought immediately occurred to him that they could be the visitors whom Kath had gone to talk to. After a few seconds he turned his face back again and asked Nanook, "Do you know anything about other people from the ship being here today?". "Definitely not. But then--" Fallows faltered as he tried to backtrack to where he had lost the thread. Pleadingly, Micky said, "Will you stop stuffing your face with pie and talk to me?". "I never found out who he was. For all I know, nobody else did either." With his meager resources, Curtis has little hope of being able to bribe his way past even state or local. "Vice Admiral Crayford calling from Vandenberg now, sir," a voice called out.
